OVERVIEW

The Need

Our Work

CALLING ALL SEASONED ALUMNI: Join Us for a Mission Like No Other!

IMR invites experienced alumni from all healthcare backgrounds to join us on a groundbreaking mystery mission to serve a vulnerable refugee population in a location yet to be revealed. We are seeking resilient professionals who are ready to bring their skills, compassion, and adaptability to this unique experience. This mission is meticulously planned to align with United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDG) 3 and 17, focusing on elevating the health and wellbeing of underserved communities.

Through our shoulder-to-shoulder care model, we work alongside local partners to strengthen healthcare systems and cultivate future leaders in medicine and public health. By building workforce density and capacity, we aim to create lasting change in accordance with UNSDG 3: Good Health & Wellbeing. Additionally, our commitment to UNSDG 17: Partnerships for the Goals means we only operate at the formal invitation of local hosts, ensuring that our efforts are directly aligned with community needs and priorities.

This mystery trip represents a unique opportunity to make a meaningful impact where it's needed most, delivering critical medical and dental care, as well as health education. Together, we will navigate this journey, meeting specific goals that have been carefully set to maximize the positive outcomes of our mission. Join us on this unparalleled adventure to bring hope, health, and healing to those in need. Your expertise and dedication can truly make a difference!
